

1000 Ways out of Town

There must be 1000 ways to get out of town
You'd think that I'd have known them all by now
Give me a suit of armor to protect me
And a double shot of something strong so you forget me

Don't think there's gonna be
A hero's welcome for me
I wouldn't hold my breath
Cause it'll kill me

Drawn up 1000 ways to get rid of me
If I've got a friend like you who needs an enemy
Did I say something catastrophic
To lead you to become catatonic?

CHORUS

You're all talk and I'm all action, face to face with you
Back to back for 20 paces this is what we'll do

You've got something behind your back that I should know about
At the count of 3 its over, you'll see what life's about
